THE COPYRIGHT QUESTION.

Strong Probability That the Home Government Will Grant Canada's Wishes.

Cuba Wants to be Like Canada—Japan's Trouble in Formosa.

London, Sept. 4.—Mr. Edmund L. Newcomb, ex-deputy minister of justice for Canada, who came to England recently to present the Canadian case in favor of the issuance of a royal proclamation giving effect to the copyright act, was interviewed to-day by an Associated Press representative regarding the results of his mission. Mr. Newcomb said: "I have met with much opposition on the part of English authors and publishers. At present I am not at liberty to state what arrangements have been made with the government, and moreover I am under instructions to report to the Canadian government before making public anything regarding the negotiations. You may, however, say that I have the greatest confidence that the matter will be adjusted in the manner which Canada desires."

London, Sept. 4.—A Havana dispatch to the Times says a meeting of insurgent delegates at Najas proclaimed a constitution for the republic on a federal basis of five states. They also elected the Marquis Santa Lucia president and appointed various officers, as well as well as confirming the nominations. Antonio Maceo is to be a general commanding in Santa Ge Cuba, Gomez, in Puerto Principe, and Relieff in Santa Clara. Najasa was proclaimed as the provisional federal capital. A resolution was adopted permitting farmers to sell produce in the towns on payment of 25 per cent. ad valorem duty. The proposal to proclaim Maceo dictator of Cuba was discussed for six days, and finally withdrawn. The autonomist party intend to petition Spain for self government on Canadian lines. It is stated that Maximo Gomez is inclined to accept conditional autonomy, but Antonio Maceo declines any compromise.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 4.—The Novoe Vremyea's correspondent at Vladivostock writes that the Formosan insurgents are conducting successful warfare against the Japanese, in which the women share equally with the men, the spirit of determined resistance. Though the army is decimated by sickness, the Japanese will grant no quarter, and spare neither women nor children.

HIGH-HANDED WORK, IF TRUE.

Canadian Cruiser Said To Be Seizing Newfoundland Vessels.

St. Johns, Nfld., Sept. 4.—A Virginia Lake mail steamer from Labrador reports that one of the Canadian fleet of fishing cruisers, armed to the teeth with Gatling guns, cannon and other weapons, is seizing all the Newfoundland vessels found in Canadian waters, and has conveyed them to headquarters in the Straits of Belle Isle. A portion of Labrador belongs to Canada and a portion to the Newfoundland fishermen, and each country usually fishes in the territory of the other without interference. The present proceedings are doubtless due to some hot headed and incompetent official. There is much excitement here and the government held a summary meeting to consider the situation tonight.

DURRANT ON THE RACK.

His Trial Commenced Yesterday, All Preliminaries Having Been Settled.

San Francisco, Sept. 4.—The trial of Theodore Durrant for the murder of Blanche Lamont commenced in the superior court yesterday. Most of the day was taken up with the opening statement of District Attorney Barnes.

At the trial to-day the taking of testimony was begun. The first witness was Dr. Barrett, who performed the autopsy on Blanche Lamonte.

Washington, D.C., Sept. 4.—The treasury department to-day received a telegram announcing the arrival at Vancouver, B.C., of five Chinese, destined for Atlanta. It is supposed that these Chinese entered the United States at Ogdensburg, N. Y., and the collector there has been instructed to be on his guard against illegal entries.

FITZSIMMONS' NEW POSITION.

He Is To Be Deputy Warden at Stoney Mountain Penitentiary.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—James Fitzsimmons has been ordered to go to Stoney Mountain penitentiary to act as deputy warden. This is the result of the premier's visit to New Westminster. This, the minister of justice thinks, is the easiest way of settling the whole matter.

THE TERMINAL CITY.

Vancouver, Sept. 4.—Fred Goodmurphy came up in police court this morning. Evidence was given to the effect that he and the girl, Lizzie Scott, had agreed to run away. She swore in court that she had told him she was over 16 but could not swear that she was. Her grandmother, Mrs. Green, could not swear that she was not 16. The case was again remanded.

Thos. Quigley, who tried to commit suicide recently by cutting his throat, came up to-day in speedy trials court and was allowed out on his own recognizance of $1000 to appear when called.

WEDDED IN WESTMINSTER.

Nuptials of Dr. Morris and Miss Armstrong To-Day.

New Westminster, Sept. 4.—The most fashionable wedding of the year took place this morning in Holy Trinity Cathedral, when Dr. Osborne Morris, of Vernon, and Miss Rosa Selina, youngest daughter of ex-Sheriff Armstrong, were united in marriage by Rev. A. Smildrick. Miss Armstrong, sister of the bride, and Miss Morris, sister of the groom, were bridesmaids, and Miss Lillooet Armstrong and Miss Nora Armstrong, maids of honor. Dr. George H. Duncan, of Victoria, was best man. The presents numbered over 100. The newly wedded couple left for Victoria and the Sound cities after the wedding breakfast, which was a sumptuous affair.

STILL ANOTHER TESTIFIER.

The Mushroom Witness Crop in the Durrant Case Continues.

San Francisco, Cal., Sep. 4.—The Examiner says the prosecution in the Durrant case has a witness whose testimony will show the motive for the murders, something that has been lacking heretofore. The name of the witness is Clarence Wolfe, and it is said that he will swear that on April 2nd, the day before Blanche Lamont was murdered, he and Durrant held a conversation, which explains the young student's motives for killing the unfortunate Miss Lamont. Durrant commented upon the beauty of Blanche in a tone more of exultation than respect; he assured Wolfe she was a pure girl, and he intended to rob her of her virtue, which she so prized. That the girl prized her honor more than her life, explains the tragedy of the following day. This testimony, which Wolfe will give, has been kept a profound secret by the prosecution. The defence and the public have held that the young friend of the accused would take the stand only to speak a good word for the young man whose life was at stake.

A MONUMENT TO MERCIER.

Influential Committee Appointed—Manitoba Millers Unite—Notes.

Kingston, Ont., Sept. 4.—The bill of particulars in connection with the protest against the election of Hon. Mr. Harty, has been brought out. Over one hundred charges are enumerated. Among those who are down for illegal acts is Hugh Ryan, contractor, who is said to have contributed $1,000 to Mr. Harty's campaign fund; other prominent local politicians are also on the list.

London, Ont., Sept. 4.—The eighth annual session of the Trades and Labor Congress opened at noon yesterday in the city hall. Mayor Littel delivered the address of welcome, and Patrick J. Lobin, of Quebec, president, occupied the chair.

Winnipeg, Sept 4.—At the meeting of the Manitoba and Northwest Territories Millers' Association yesterday, it was decided to strike the words "Northwest Territories" from the title of the Association, and to apply for a Federal charter.

Montreal, Sept. 4.—The proposal to erect a monument to the memory of the late Hon. Honore Mercier took definite shape yesterday, when an influential committee was appointed. The intention is to erect a monument valued at between $30,000 and $40,000.

Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., Sept. 4.—The first boat passed through the Canadian canal at 10.50 yesterday morning. The canal will be opened formally for general traffic on Saturday.

Agreement Signed.

New York, Sept. 4.—The American cup committee held an informal conference this morning at the office of commodore James G. Smith. Afterwards Commodore Smith, who is chairman of the committee, went over to Erie basin and met Lord Dunraven. They signed the formal articles of agreement governing the races, exchanging documents afterwards.

OTTAWA SEPARATE SCHOOLS

The Schools Re-Open, but the Trouble is Not Yet Over.

Only Two Changes Made—Talk of Applying to Court for a Mandamus.

Ottawa, Sept. 4.—The separate schools all opened yesterday. The only concession which has been made to those who have been fighting against the engagement of the Christian brothers as teachers, is that Garneau school, in St. George's ward, is to be conducted by the Sisters instead of the Brothers.

The other three schools which the Brothers conducted are again under their charge, so that the trouble is not yet over. It is reported that a mandamus will be issued by Trustee Moffett against the Brothers being permitted to teach in any of the schools in face of the report of the commission appointed by the government to inquire into the state of the schools.

Andrew Allan, head of the well known steamship line, was in the city to-day and had an interview with Sir Adolphe Caron in reference to the winter mail service. The company wants the contract for the winter mails arranged for at once.

Sergt. Ogg, of Guelph, winner of the Governor-General's prize at the Dominion Rifle Association meeting, has received a congratulatory message from His Excellency. Both are Aberdeenshire men.

Surgeon Strange, of the Kingston penitentiary, was in the city to-day. He will shortly be retired on a superannuation allowance.

Captain McElhinney, nautical adviser of the marine department, has returned from inspecting the life-saving stations on the great lakes. He reports the water to be lower than at any time for the last thirty years.

Captain Peterson, of the government cruiser Dolphin, has been dismissed for leaving his vessel without permission.

WILHELM'S COMPLIMENTS

To Schelldorf, but Nothing to Those Footing the Bills.

Berlin, Sept. 4.—The Post says that Emperor William has presented the French cannon, captured in the war of 1870-71, to General Schelldorf, accompanied by a gracious letter of recognition of the great services rendered by him in maintaining the high standard of efficiency of the army in its state of preparation for war.

The German-American veterans visited the arsenal, museum and Rathaus here to-day. An illustrated memorial of the Rathaus was presented to each visitor. They were shown the glass from which the Emperor (then Prince William of Prussia) drank on the occasion of the famous competition which took place in the Rathaus in 1869. This evening the excursionists will attend a conversazione and to-morrow they will deposit upon the coffin of William I., in the imperial mausoleum at Charlottenberg, laurel wreaths fastened with satin ribbons inscribed "From the German Veterans' Club of America." After a visit to Leipsic and Thuringia, the party will disperse.

A MISSIONARY'S EXPERIENCE.

Philadelphia, Sept. 4.—A letter has been received by the Rev. F. S. Dobbins, in charge of the Baptist Missionary board in this city from the Rev. W. M. Upcraft, at Hankow, China. He also sent a newspaper called the Celestial Empire, published in Shanghai, which contains a full account of the recent riots in the Szechuan province, which caused the entire suspension of the work of the West China mission. Mr. Upcraft is in charge of the mission there, a number of whose workers are from this city.

In his letter he states that the trouble began in Chengtu, the capital of the province, on May 28th. This was soon followed by an attack by a mob on the Canadian Methodists' mission, which was destroyed. The stations of the Baptist Missionary Union at Szechuan were at Sulchaufu, Kiating and Yachean. The first trouble was at Kiating, which was the nearest to Chengtu, where the riots began. On that day the streets were full of people who at first seemed to be peaceable, but became more aggressive and began to loot the mission houses. A magistrate of Yachean aided the missionaries to escape down the river on a raft. A guard of soldiers was sent with them. They had trouble at several places on the river, but went safely past, and the missionaries all finally reached Sui Chau Fu on Sunday, June 9.

Mr. Beaman, of the Kiating mission, who had remained behind in a small boat, hoping to be of service to some Yacheau friends who might come down in boats, had a thrilling experience. During the night he was attacked by a band of robbers, who stripped him of everything he had, clothes and all. When the robbers came on his boat below Sui Chau Fu he jumped overboard and dived under the boat, remaining under water for some time.

ANOTHER INSURANCE FRAUD.

A Man "Dead" for Two Years, Is Brought to Life.

Duluth, Minn., Sept. 4.—George Fraker, of Topeka, Kan., supposed to have been drowned in the Missouri river two years ago, was captured in the woods near Tower, Minn., yesterday. Fraker's life was insured for $58,000. The heirs brought suit in the Kansas court, and recovered. The case went to the supreme court, and the insurance companies were defeated in the final decision, recorded last month. It was always maintained by the companies that Fraker was alive. Recently it became known in some way that Fraker was near Tower under an alias. Attorney Robert T. Herrick and Deputy Sheriff Wilkinson, of Topeka, organized a party to search for him. Fraker was encountered in the woods and his capture was effected in a strategic manner. He was brought to Duluth to-day and taken to Topeka at once. Fraker will go without a requisition. He has been living near Tower for six months. He admitted his identity, and said he did not leave home on purpose to defraud the companies, but says he fell into the Missouri river, swam across and got on land. Next day he read in the papers that he had been drowned, and concluded to carry out the deception and allow the heirs to collect the insurance.

The case is one of great general interest because a reward of $20,000 was offered for his capture. Fraker is a physician, and up to the latter part of 1893 was physician to the St. Elmo hotel, the leading hotel in Excelsior Springs, a famous resort near Kansas City. Together with seven or eight companions, the doctor went fishing on the Missouri river one day, and after dark and while in company with George Harvey, James Triplett and Jake Crowley, a negro, he disappeared and was seen no more. The parties afterwards swore positively that they witnessed his drowning while rowing in a leaky boat, but after a search his body could not be found.

THE POWERS AND ARMENIA.

Statement in the British House—False Reports of Cholera.

London, Sept. 3.—The Hon. H. G. Curzon, under secretary for the foreign office, replying to a question by Mr. Bowles, M. P., in the House of Commons, said to-day that several communications have been received from Turkey upon the subject of the proposed reforms in Armenia. Unfortunately, he said, the communications were unsatisfactory. The project of reforms which had been suggested by Russia, France and England had not received the official support of Germany, Austria and Italy. But the powers last named, Mr. Curzon said, he believed were in sympathy with the reforms proposed. As to whether the government would undertake any action beyond diplomatic representations or negotiations without previously informing parliament of the grounds upon which the action would be made, he was unable to say, nor could he make any declaration regarding the course the government would find themselves called upon to pursue in regard to the Armenian affairs.

In reply to an interrogation by Mr. Luttrell, member for Tavistock division of Devonshire, relative to the case of W. H. Ryckard, an Englishman, now under sentence of 35 years imprisonment in Hawaii for complicity in the recent Royalist rebellion, Mr. Curzon said that as Mr. Ryckard had surrendered his British nationality, the government had no locus standi in the matter.

An official examination of the cases of sickness at Grimsby has proved that the disorder was not cholera, as has been alleged.

Henry M. Stanley's departure for America has created surprise to his friends. He has refused, as usual, to talk with reporters upon the subject, as he is known to have a strong aversion to the members of the profession to which he once belonged; and it is mainly this conduct which has made him so unpopular. He travels alone.

Count Von Altleiningena Westenburg has been arrested here on an extradition warrant charging him with the abduction of Liselli Schwiserier from Frankfurt.

WILLIAM DEATH ON SOCIALISM

He Calls It Some Pretty Hard Names in a Patriotic Speech.

Berlin, Sept. 3.—At a state dinner in the white hall of the royal castle, Emperor William, in toasting the guards, said: "If to-day I propose a toast to my guards, I do so with a joyful heart, for it is a day of exceptional rejoicing and brilliancy. A whole people inflamed with enthusiasm provided the frame for the day's review. The reason for their enthusiasm was the remembrance for the personality of the great emperor, now dead. He who now and yesterday gazed upon the colors bedecked with oak leaves cannot have done so without a heart being stirred with sorrow for the spirit and the tongue which spoke to us in their rustling.

"These tattered trophies told of the events twenty-five years since; of the great hour of the great day when the German empire arose again. Great was the battle, hot the turmoil, and mighty the forces that dashed against each other. Bravely fought the enemy for his laurels, for his past and for his emperor. With the courage of despair fought the gallant French army. The Germans fought for their land, their hearths and their future unity. Therefore our feelings are so deeply stirred that everyone who wears or has worn the emperor's uniform is especially honored by the people. Let your gratitude be expressed in one united voice to Emperor William I., and let it be our task, especially of the younger among us, to maintain that which the emperor founded.

"Yet in the noble joy of the celebration a note has been struck which assuredly has no place there. A rabble unworthy to bear the name of Germans has dared to revile the German people and has dared to drag in the dust the person of the universally honored emperor, who to us is sacred. May the people find in themselves the strength to repel these monstrous attacks. If they do not, I call upon you to repel the treasonable band and to wage a war which will free us from such elements.

"I cannot, however, drink the health of my guards without mentioning him under whom they fought twenty five years ago. To-day the future commander of the army of the Meuse stands before you. For twenty-five years his majesty, the King of Saxony, has faithfully shared with us all the joy and all the sorrow which has befallen our house and the country. So also has the King of Wurtemburg, whose highest joy is to have stood in the regiment of hussars of the guard and to have served with Emperor William, and who hastened hither to celebrate this day in comradeship.

"We Germans have only one obligation, namely, to retain that which our fathers have conquered for us. I therefore include in my toast to the guards corps the health of two noble princes, and especially of the commander of the army of the Meuse. Hurrah for his majesty, the King of Saxony. Again and a third time hurrah!"

The toast was drunk with enthusiasm, and the King of Saxony arose and said: "I thanking your majesty in my own name and on behalf of the kingdom of Wurtemburg for your gracious words, permit me again to-day to take over the command of the guards corps and in its name to empty my glass to its august chief, his majesty Emperor William II."

The Vowaerts has been confiscated, owing to anti-patriotic utterances. The editors will be prosecuted.

THE CUBAN COMMISSION

Warmly Welcomed and Hospitably Entertained in Peru.

Lima, Peru, Sept. 4.—The Cuban commission, which seeks the recognition of the Peruvian government for the provisional government of the Cuban insurgents, arrived here yesterday, and was welcomed at a public reception by a committee of Cubans and 500 Peruvians. Counsellor Gamero delivered an address of welcome, speaking in the name of Peru.

Dr. Aguerro replied in behalf of the Cuban commission, speaking from the balcony of the Callao bank. He thanked Counsellor Gamero and the Peruvian people, for whom he spoke, for their welcome, and reminded them that Peru was the first to recognize the independence of Cuba in 1868. Great sympathy was manifested for the purpose of the commission, and there were many vivas given for "Cuba libre."

Panama, Sept. 4.—The province of Lejap, Ecuador, has surrendered to Gen Alfaro's force without resistance. It is also reported that Gen. Alfaro's victory is practically complete, and that the war in Ecuador may be regarded as brought to a close. It is possible, however, that some of the forces of the Quito government now massed in the province of Charchi may try, as a last resort, to attack Alfaro in Quito. Defeat in this event would be inevitable, unless Colombia should act as an ally of the Quito faction. President Caro, of Colombia, has officially stated, however, that he will remain neutral unless Gen. Alfaro should commit or permit his followers to commit any overt acts favorable to the Liberals in Colombia and tending to weaken the government of the president.

Havana, Sept. 4.—The company of Cubans under sentence of imprisonment in the fortress of Couta, Morocco, for rebellion, were deported to-day on board the steamer Cataluna. Five of them are under sentence of life imprisonment, while ten are condemned for 20 years.

Madrid, Sept. 4.—The Correspondencia says that a Spanish squadron is going to the Antilles, the principal object of the exhibition being to urge the claims of Spain against the United States in the Alliance affair.

The steamer Antonio Lopez has arrived at Havana from Spain, bringing the Eleventh Battalion of Artillery, the Arlaban field squadron and the Del Roys squadron, the reinforcements aggregating 57 officers and 1300 men. Marshal de Campos received the troops on their debarkation.

STOCK MARKET REPORTS.

Speculation Opens Dull After the Holidays, But Closed Well.

New York, Sept. 3.—The Evening Post's special London cablegram says: "After a dull opening, the stock market closed good all round. The recovery was especially noticeable in Kaffirs. These were very "sick" yesterday, but are now as strong favorites as ever. Good business is doing in Americans, with the public as a strong factor again. The tone throughout was bullish.

The Evening Post's financial article says: In most respects to-day's stock market was a counterpart of Saturday's. It was strong and in many securities was buoyant. The active buying was again directed towards the anthracite shares and bonds, one or two industrials and miscellaneous issues. St. Paul scored another sharp advance, and the anamoly, now familiar, of local operators buying while London sold the stock, was again presented. It may be reasonably conjectured that the foreign interests, who were the chief sustaining forces under the market for this stock during the doubtful period five or six weeks ago, are now letting go their surplus holdings as home enthusiasm revives.

SUICIDE OF A PORTLAND GIRL.

Because She Couldn't Attend the Church She Preferred.

Portland, Sept. 3.—Lulu Dyer, aged 14, committed suicide at her home in Albina to-day by taking "Rough on Rats," because her parents would not allow her to attend the church she wished to last evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dyer wanted the girl to go with them to church, but she said it was "pokey" and she wanted to go to another church with a lady friend. She finally remained at home, and when her parents returned she was in a precarious condition, having taken a dose of poison. They secured a doctor and worked with her until evening, when she died.

Sadie Jones, aged 12, committed suicide in the same manner in Albina only three weeks ago.

—Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former, certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength and happiness.

In the Matter of the Application of Peter Steele for a Certificate of Indefeasible Title to the following portions of Sections XXXI and XXXII., Esquimalt District, viz.:

All that piece or parcel of land forming a portion of Section XXXII., Esquimalt District, together known as Lots 20 and 21, according to a survey and plan made by R. Homfray, C. E., and more particularly described as follows: To wit: Commencing at the N. E. corner of said section, thence running westerly along the northern boundary of said section 396 links, thence south 475 links, thence easterly to the eastern boundary of said section, 351 links; thence northward along the said boundary to the point of beginning, 562 links.

Also that piece or parcel of land known as Buckley's Orchard, and forming a portion of Section XXXI. Esquimalt District, more particularly described as follows: To wit: Commencing at a point on the northern boundary of the said section 14 feet six inches distant from the N. E. corner of before mentioned Section XXXII., thence running easterly along the said boundary 400 feet, thence southerly and parallel to the eastern boundary of the first above described piece of land 325 feet, thence at right angles west 350 feet, thence north to the point of beginning, 198 feet.

Also all that piece or parcel of land forming another portion of Section XXXI., Esquimalt District, bounded as follows, viz.: On the west by the last described piece of land known as Buckley's Orchard, on the south by a line drawn from the south easterly corner of said last described piece to the Craigflower road and parallel to the northern boundary of the said Section XXXI., to the eastward by the Craigflower road, and to the northward by the northern boundary of said Section XXXI.

NOTICE is hereby given that a certificate of indefeasible title to the above lands will be issued to Peter Steele on the 30th day of September, 1895, unless in the meantime a valid objection thereto be made to me in writing by a person claiming an estate or interest therein or any part thereof.

S. Y. WOOTTON,
Deputy Registrar-General.

FRASER RIVER SALMON PACK

The sockeye season of 1895 closed this morning, and the few canneries that worked to the last are now shut down, says the New Westminster Columbian. For what is known as an "off" year, the run has been exceedingly good, and the pack has reached, if not exceeded, the most sanguine expectations; and might have been larger than it is, except that the packers prepared for only a moderate pack, and there was a shortage of tin at many of the establishments when it was found the pack could be considerably increased over what was prepared for. The run knocked out, temporarily, at least, the theory respecting "off" years, and the successful operation of the Fraser river hatchery is given its full share of credit for the increase. Next year, however, which, according to the old rule, should bring a very short and light run, will tell the tale. If the run and pack exceed in any important degree the previous corresponding season in the four year cycle, then all doubt will be removed, and the hatchery will have established its reputation fully and finally.

The season just ended has been an unusually profitable one for the fishermen—more so than for the canners, whose profits will be reduced in consequence of the high price they paid for fish from the opening of the season to its close. Twenty cents for fish was the prevailing figure, though sometimes a higher price was paid. The cannerymen expected only a short and moderate run, and commenced buying at 20 cents per fish; and, as the run might stop short any day, all were as anxious to secure as many salmon as possible, and continued paying this figure from day to day. Some of the packers, in their anxiety to be certain of filling their cans, went as high as 25 and 30 cents on occasions.

Contrary to general expectations, the run commenced earlier than last year and continued fairly good, and remarkable even, to the end, with two extra strong rushes, a week apart, in the middle. The second heavy rush caused prices to go to pieces for 48 hours, after which, however, they came back to 20 cents per fish and remained at that figure with most establishments to the end. The fishermen, consequently, had a most profitable season, and it is doubtful if more money was paid out to fishermen in any previous year, 1893 excepted.

The number of fishermen engaged in the industry was the largest on record, the licenses exceeding 2100, and the number of canneries packing was greater than ever before.

The pack, so far as can be ascertained at this early date (and the figures can be taken as nearly correct), was as follows:

	Cases.
Anglo-B.C. Packing Co., Ltd.—seven canneries, viz., Britannia, Garry Point, British Columbia, Annandale, Wadhams, British America and Canoe Pass	80,000
Victoria Canning Co.—four canneries—viz., Delta, Wellington, Harlock and Holly	45,000
Sea Island Cannery	19,500
Ewen's Cannery	26,000
Canadian Pacific Packing Co.	20,400
Fishermen's Canning Co.	9,000
Costello & McMorran	16,000
Beaver Cannery	17,000
Malcolm & Windsor	15,500
Terra Nova Canning Co	8,000
P. Routilier & Co.	8,000
Deas Island Cannery	6,982
Richmond Cannery	12,000
Lulu Island Canning Co	13,000
Brunswick Canning Co.	10,000
Federation Canning Co	13,000
Short & Squair	12,000
Pacific Coast Packing Co.	11,000
Dinsmore Canning Co.	4,000
Gulf of Georgia Canning Co.	17,000
Alliance Canning Co.	4,500
Atlas Canning Co.	3,000
Total pack for 1895	370,882

The pack last year was 363,967 cases.

THE NEW COURT REGISTRAR

Local Lawyers Declare That He Should be One of Their Profession.

Claim Made that it Would Expedite Business and Cheapen Litigation.

At a meeting of the lawyers of the city yesterday afternoon a resolution was passed declaring that the vacancies in the vacancies in the office of registrar of the supreme court should be filled with legal men, as outlined in these columns some days ago, and it was further decided to endeavor to get the government to take such action. The meeting was held in the office of Bodwell & Irving and was largely attended. E. V. Bodwell was made chairman and Herbert E. A. Robertson secretary. The chairman in opening the meeting said that everyone present knew the object of the meeting. The appointment of a registrar of the supreme court was a matter which affected them only indirectly, but was of the greatest importance to their clients and the public at large. It was highly important that the office should be conducted in the best manner possible, and he believed a legal man should be appointed to it. The registrar had a number of matters referred to him which required a good deal of judicial discretion. In the past probably every legal firm in the city had experienced trouble over the necessity of referring petty questions, which should have been settled by the registrar, to a judge. The expense of litigation had thereby been increased greatly, and the speaker believed that and much other trouble would be avoided by having a professional man in the office. He said that he thought it his duty to express his opinion on the matter, and believed that the opinion of the lawyers as a whole would have weight with the government when the appointment was made.

H. B. W. Aikman supported what Mr. Bodwell said. He said all were agreed on the necessity of having professional men in the office and all that could be done now was to express their opinion in a resolution.

S. Perry Mills agreed that a professional man at the head of affairs could do much to expedite the work of the solicitors. He took occasion to say that Mr. Prevost had brought a large amount of common sense to bear on the work and that it had materially assisted in solving some of the difficult legal points which had come before him. The speaker also praised the work of Arthur Keast and Harvey Combe, and said it would be but an act of simple justice to reward their work.

J. Stuart Yates concurred in the opinion that a professional man should occupy the post of registrar and expressed the hope that a generally concurred in resolution from the bar to the government would bring about the desired result.

P. AE. Irving drew attention to what had already been done by the Law Society and said that they would be but following that up and at an opportune time too.

After some further discussion by Archer Martin, Lindley Crease, J. A. Aikman, J. P. Walls, Thornton Fell and L. P. Duff, the following resolution was framed and unanimously passed:

Whereas the Law Society of British Columbia at its annual meeting, held at the city of Victoria on the 4th day of March, 1895, passed a resolution in the following terms:

"Resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting the registry offices of the Supreme Court of British Columbia should be reorganized, and that to each officer in the registry should be allotted certain specific functions to be performed by him, and that in the future appointments to the positions of registrars of the Supreme court should, as far as possible, be made from members of the profession.

And whereas this meeting desires to reiterate and endorse the principle embodied in the said resolution;

Be it therefore resolved, that in the opinion of this meeting the public interest imperatively demands that the present vacancies in the offices of the Registrar of the Supreme Court of British Columbia should be filled by members of the legal profession;

And be it further resolved, that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Hon. the Attorney-General, with a request that the government give effect to the views above expressed.

R. T. Elliott, in moving that a committee be appointed to wait on the government, personally present the resolution and urge that its provisions be carried out, said that he believed such a course necessary as the government had unexcelled facilities for filing away documents. Stuart Yates seconded the motion and it was carried. Mr. Bodwell and Mr. Aikman were named on the committee.

The resolution will be presented to the government at the earliest possible date.

None But Ayer's at the World's Fair.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla enjoys the extraordinary distinction of having been the only blood purifier allowed an exhibit at the World's fair, Chicago. Manufacturers of other sarsaparillas sought by every means to obtain a showing of their goods, but they were all turned away under the application of the rule forbidding the entry of patent medicines and nostrums. The decision of the World's fair authorities in favor of Ayer's Sarsaparilla was in effect as follows: "Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a patent medicine. It does not belong to the list of nostrums. It is here on its merits."

NO. 249.

A BY-LAW

To Amend the Ross Bay Cemetery By-Law.

Whereas it is expedient to amend the Ross Bay Cemetery By-Law, 1894;

1. Section 45 of the Ross Bay Cemetery By-Law, 1894, and the forms "C" and "D" in the said section referred to, and contained in the schedule to the said By-Law, are hereby repealed, and the said By-Law shall in all other respects remain in force and be read as if the said section 45 and the said forms "C" and "D" therein referred to had not originally been inserted in the said By-Law.

2. The following Section shall be inserted in lieu of Section 45 so repealed in said By-Law:

"45. Every application for permission to inter the body of any person shall be accompanied by a certificate of a duly qualified medical practitioner setting forth clearly his opinion as to the cause of death."

3. This By-Law may be cited as the Ross Bay Cemetery By-Law, 1894, Amendment By-Law, 1895.

Passed the Municipal Council the 15th day of August, 1895.

Reconsidered, adopted and finally passed the Council the 19th day of August, 1895.

(L.S) JOHN TEAGUE,

WESTMORELAND VOTE.

Much has been said by the Conservative papers on the Westmoreland election, but all through they have been unable to conceal their real feeling that the government has practically suffered a defeat. This is amply shown by one fact alone, namely, that the newspaper friends of the government have not cared to face the whole facts. A notable illustration was noticed by the Montreal Gazette, which published an outrageously false report of the vote and based upon this some equally outrageous comments. The Herald has taken the trouble to correct its neighbor's statements and conclusions and to give the following analysis of the Westmoreland returns, which is interesting:

"Had the Gazette awaited the full returns from Westmoreland, it would have left unsaid many of the things it said on Monday morning. It said, for instance, that the falling off in the Conservative majority was due to the fact that only a two-thirds vote was polled, the Conservatives staying away because there was no doubt of the result. It pointed out that the Liberal vote was less than in 1891; and figured, in consequence, that no fewer than 1,500 Conservative votes had not been polled. That in itself, if true, would not be without suggestiveness; but, as the full returns show, the statement is altogether erroneous.

"The vote was heavier than that of 1891 instead of being smaller. In 1891 6,262 votes were cast, being an increase of 300 over the figures of the preceding general election; last Saturday 6,313 voters marked their ballots. Therefore there was no absentees. The total Liberal vote was not smaller than it was in 1891, but much larger, the relative figures being: 1891, 2,057; 1895, 2,785; an increase of 728. The Conservative vote, on the other hand, showed a falling off of 677, the respective figures being: 1891, 4,205; 1895, 3,528. These are the broad facts of the famous victory, which the Conservatives in their own mind, have achieved. Upon going into their figures more minutely more reasons for their jubilation will appear. Their majority in Moncton city was cut down from 550 to 268; in Moncton parish their majority of 227 was changed into a minority of 109; in Westmoreland parish their majority decreased from 60 to 12; in Dorchester from 372 to 171; while in Salisbury a Conservative majority of 151 was changed into a Liberal majority of 163. In Shediac alone did the government increase their majority; and there it seems to have profited by clerical interference in its most offensive form, the priest campaigning from the altar steps. These figures the government may, if it chooses, regard as indicative of a continuance of the Conservative faith of the electors of Canada; but if it will consult with the Dominion statistician it will find that there are not a dozen Conservative constituencies in Canada that could stand such a turn-over in popular sentiment. In Cardwell, for instance, in which the Gazette is particularly interested, a similar change in poular opinion would convert a Conservative majority of 248 into a minority of about 500."

THE REIGN OF BOODLE.

Walter Wellman recently in a magazine article laid before the people of the United States some interesting facts relating to the money spent in political contests among them. The presidential campaigns have of course been the most notable in this respect, and Mr. Wellman's statements as to the sums spent on either side to secure victory were somewhat startling. The Chicago Times-Herald has been led by these to moralize on the part which money has come to play in United States politics. "The money required to elect any president from George Washington to U. S. Grant," it says, "would not be enough nowadays to carry a congressional district, no, not even enough to carry a ward in some of our big cities. William Waldorf Astor spent as much money as General Washington was worth in an unsuccessful attempt to win a seat in the congress from New York, and Governor Flower, who defeated him, spent a small fortune in the effort. Many Congressmen spend their salary for the term—ten thousand dollars—in making their calling and election sure, and Senatorships have sold as high as half a million dollars. For a Presidency, then, a million must be in sight." And again: "Why was it necessary to levy assessments to the extent of hundreds of thousands of dollars on New York importers to make Cleveland President the first time? and why, in addition to supplies from the same source and the contributions of a mammoth corporation gridironing large cities, was it necessary for William C. Whitney to chip in a quarter of a million on his own account to give the same upright man re-election? All this big money—for what?" It will at once occur to most Canadians that the same unpleasant phenomenon has developed in our politics. The N. P. has always been held up as a grand thing for the country, yet at every general election the Conservative managers have thought it necessary to spend immense sums of money to secure it a victory. The case in Canada is much worse than in the States for the fact that the money spent on our side came largely from the public treasury. If the Times-Herald were published in Canada it would be led to wonder why the Connolly and other public contracts were "milked," and why subsidized railway men in Quebec were required by Sir Adolphe Caron to "whack up" when the government's policy possessed so many points of beauty.

THE COSMOPOLITAN.

Fiction and travel are the strong points of the September Cosmopolitan, which, by the way, illustrates better than any previous number the perfection of its plant for printing a magazine of the bigest class. Conan Doyle, H. H. Boyesen, and Clark Russell are among the story tellers. A well known New York lawyer relates the story of "A Famous Crime"—the murder of Dr. Parkman by Professor Webster. A delightful sketch of "An English Country House-Party" is from the pen of Nina Larre Smith—the house at which she visited being no less than the historical Abbotsford, still occupied by the direct descendants of Sir Walter Scott. "The Real of the Wonderful" is descriptive of the strange forms of life discovered by science in the ocean's depths, and is superbly illustrated in a surprising and marvelous way by the author, who is a member of the Smithsonian staff. An article on Cuba is timely. Without bothering the reader with unnecessary description of the famous yachts now so much talked of, the Cosmopolitan presents four full-page illustrations showing these noted boats. Thomas Moran again contributes a series of the most exquisite landscape of western scenery, twelve in number, illustrating an article by Col. John A. Cockerill, on "Modern Utah." And it may be said that no more beautifully illustrated number of the Cosmopolitan has ever been given to the public.

Americas News.

Boston, Sept. 4.—Fire broke out shortly after five o'clock this morning on Pier 1, East Boston, owned by the Boston and Albany railroad, and soon spread to the adjoining piers and storehouses. Piers 1, 4, and 5 were burned, and storehouses No. 4 and 5 were wholly destroyed. Several dwellings also caught fire. The loss will reach $150,000.

Evansville, Ind., Sept. 4.—Fire last night destroyed the Heilman Flour Mill, a large concern, an elevator and one hundred thousand bushels of wheat. The loss is estimated at $100,000, partially insured.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—A very severe storm of wind, rain and lightning prevailed the northern part of Illinois and southern Wisconsin last night. At some points the storm reached the proportions of a hurricane.

New York, Sept. 4.—At the regular meeting of the board of the Commercial Cable Company, held here to-day, the usual dividend of 1¾ per cent. was declared, payable Oct. 1. The transfer books close on Sept. 20 and re-open on October 2.

DROWNED IN THE COWICHAN.

Alex. Gabrill Falls Into a Deep Pool and Loses His Life.

Duncans, Sept. 4.—Alexander Gabriel, a halfbreed, well known around Victoria, was drowned in the Cowichan river yesterday evening at a place known as the falls, about ten miles from Duncan's. Gabriel in company with T. Whidden and John Campbell, went up there yesterday morning on a hunting trip. He slipped while crossing the stream above the falls, his head striking the projecting bluff, and fell into a deep pool below. Gabriel was an excellent swimmer but being stunned by the fall and hemmed in by the rocks on either side he was unable to get out and was soon drowned before the eyes of his companions, who could give him no assistance. Police Officer J. Maitland-Dougall left for the falls this morning to recover the body. Coroner Wellburn will probably hold an inquest. Gabriel leaves a wife and three children. His wife left but yesterday morning for the hop fields of Washington.

A PYRRHIC VICTORY.

The Westmoreland Result is Not Encouraging to the Ministerialists.

Mr. Haggart and Dr. Montague on the Premier's Track—Fitzsimmons' Case.

Ottawa, Aug. 26.—A drop from 2,146 of a majority to about 700, which is the result in the election of Westmoreland, has sent a cold shiver through the ministerial party and its followers and is accepted even in rabid Tory ranks as an indication that when the general election does come the present government will be overwhelmingly whipped. Westmoreland is in New Brunswick, something like what Ottawa city is in Ontario. The city of Moncton, which is situated in Westmoreland, is the headquarters of the Intercolonial railway, where the workshops are. It is there that the railway employes have their homes. They owe their positions to the government and were well impressed with the fact that if they did not give their votes to the administration in this election other men would receive their jobs. It is about the same thing in Ottawa when a contest comes on. The civil service employes are expected to vote for their bosses, and always do so, although they are now in revolt against the treatment which Mr. Foster and his colleagues have been extending to them. The majority of the members of the civil service are appointed by order-in-council, and are just to that extent not so dependent upon the government as those men who are merely engaged by the week or the month, as is the case with railway hands. Times are too dull in the East to permit of railway men losing their jobs. The situation being thus the change in popular opinion in favor of the Liberal party as against the present occupants of the treasury benches cannot well be over-estimated. It must also be remembered that Mr. Wood, who resigned his place in parliament to go to the senate, did all that he could in favor of Mr. Powell, the Conservatice candidate. Mr. Wood guaranteed the election to the government, and being wealthy and a man of leisure, he spent his time and means to deliver the goods. Well, he did deliver the goods, but badly spoiled. Mr. Wood knew that if he waited for a senatorship until after the next election he would probably go without it. Mr. Killam, the Liberal candidate, made a vigorous fight, aided, as he was, by the leaders of the Liberal party. Another such victory for the government would mean a defeat.

There is one thing to be well remembered in this contest, and that is although the election was sprung upon the people without any warning the Liberal party was not only ready but Mr. Killan at once threw up his seat in the legislature to enter the contest, notwithstanding that it was perfectly plain that he could not get elected this trip to the Commons. Next time, when the railway men will not know who are to be the losers after the general election, and consequently will be more independent in their voting. Mr. Killam will be pretty certain to get returned. The loyalty which the party bear towards the Liberal leader and his colleagues will be shown well at the next general election as it was exemplified in the Westmoreland campaign. There was no questioning of the result once it was decided to fight, as it will be in every instance that presents itself now. Everyone was at his post and well may they now feel proud of what was accomplished.

The present government can do little without the use of their bribery brigade. That they were at work in Westmoreland is shown from the fact that some of the principals were arrested. In Winnipeg, it will be remembered, that not only was an arrest made during the election, when Mr. Martin was returned, but the party arrested was sent to penitentiary for the part he played. It is well that the Liberals are watching the brigade and will see that the gang are prosecuted. It will teach them a lesson to be more cautious when the general election comes round.

Sir Mackenzie Bowell and Mr. Daly have done British Columbia and are now in the Northwest and Manitoba, but that trip will only be satisfactory to the Bowell wing of the cabinet. The Haggart combination must see for themselves that Sir Mackenzie has not been making capital for himself, probably at their expense. To satisfy themselves on this point one or more of the combination must make a trip to the Pacific coast. It is therefore understood that Mr. Haggart and Dr. Montague will make a political tour of the western provinces, visiting, of course, all the leading cities of the Pacific coast. Mr. Haggart might tolerate the Grits making capital against him but he will not by any means see Sir Mackenzie endeavoring to entrench himself more firmly in the confidence of the party. The minister of railways is bound to drive the old man out of the leadership and to do it all the sooner Mr. Haggart wishes it understood that he is not after it himself.

The Fitzsimmons case is not yet disposed of as far as the government is concerned. The late deputy of the New Westminster penitentiary, for he will never be restored to his position there, has yet got his quarters in the penitentiary. Fitzsimmons' friends think this is a direct blow at all the British Columbia members, and especially at Mr. Corbould. Some of the ministers, including the premier, have promised that Fitzsimmons would be prevented from using the place as his quarters, but Tupper who is guided in this case by Solicitor-General Curran, rebels. Sir Hibbert will have to come off his perch sooner or later. British Columbia members are expected to stand anything.

—The anniversary services of the Centennial Methodist church will be held on Sunday next, and the anniversary social on the Tuesday evening following.

—The Juvenile Opera Company will give a social concert and dance at A. O. U. W. hall on Friday evening. Richardson's orchestra will furnish the music.

—A meeting at which preliminary arrangements for the Kootenay excursion will be perfected, will be held at the Board of Trade rooms to-morrow afternoon.

—A general meeting of the Victoria Wanderers Association Football Club will be held at the B. C. Dye Works to-morrow night, at eight o'clock, to reorganize for the season. All interested are requested to attend.

—The barkentine Spinaway, Capt. Garrick, was towed to Port Townsend this morning by the tug Constance. She is to load a cargo of lumber at Port Blakely for Freemantle, Australia, and will proceed there at once.

—Lady Aberdeen has been pleased to accept the invitation from the local Council of Women, to preside at their annual meeting and deliver an address. The date of the meeting, which will be a public one, is fixed for November 6th.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. Saviour's church, Victoria West, was held yesterday afternoon. It was followed by a sale of work, which was quite a success. At the conclusion refreshments were served.

—The ladies of the Friendly Help Society are endeavoring to obtain a sewing machine for a poor widow that she may earn a living for herself and child. Anyone having one out of use that could be spared, if only for a time, would confer a great favor by addressing the secretary, Miss Lawson, 146 Kingston street.

—As there will be a loan exhibition in connection with the woman's department at the Fair, any one possessing antiques, bronzes, old lace, etc., and desirous of aiding in making the exhibit a success, will confer a favor by sending in their names to the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Scaife, 130 Cadboro Bay road.

—A carload of jam was shipped to Winnipeg on Sunday by the Okell & Morris Fruit Preserving Co. Another carload will be dispatched east later in the month, and during the season four more carloads will be forwarded. It is being handled by some of the best firms in eastern Canada, where the produce of the factory has won a place for itself.

—At the public library during August there were 1792 exchanges of books; of these 884 were to ladies and 908 to gentlemen. The greatest number of books given out in one day was 126, and the average number 67. Forty-nine new members enrolled their names in the library register—24 ladies and 25 gentlemen. The following books have been added to the library recently: "List of the Shareholders in the Chartered Banks of the Dominion of Canada," "Report of the Canadian Archives," by Douglas Brymner, LL. D., F. R. S. C., archivist, 1894; and "Royal Colonial Institute, Report of Proceedings," vol. 26.

—Referring to Wm. Gillette's great play "Too Much Johnson," which is to be presented at the Victoria Theatre on Saturday next, the San Francisco Call of August 6th says: The Baldwin was crowded last night with people so ready and willing to laugh that "Too Much Johnson" need not have been nearly so good a performance to have satisfied them. Gillette's lightest word, his merest hint of expression was enough. The audience was bubbling over with laughter before the end of the first act; the company was enthusiastically recalled at the end of the second, and when the play closed there wasn't a smileless man or woman in the house."

—The Uniform Rank K. of P. will give a social dance at Castle Hall this evening. There will be good music and a pleasant time is anticipated by all who are going to attend.

—The two stacks of hay, the property of H. R. Forde, the drayman, which were destroyed on Monday evening, were after all insured. The amount of insurance was $700, and it was placed in companies represented by Heisterman & Co., and Lowenburg, Harris & Co.

—At the meeting on Monday afternoon at Government House, Lady Aberdeen spoke of the Society of the Treasury of God. A large number of ladies and gentlemen in the city are already interested and acting on this plan, and will shortly be organized into a society, of which Lady Aberdeen has consented to be president.

—Perseverance Lodge, No. 21, I. O. G. T., held its meeting in Temperance hall, Pandora street, last evening. A number of visiting members were present and a pleasant evening was spent. It was "Pound night," and a number of parcels of good things in the line of sweetmeats were sold and consumed. Under the head of "Good of the Order," there was a very interesting discussion.

—Additional power, in the shape of a large engine and more powerful boilers, has been obtained by Walkely, King & Casey, and the pumping operations will be resumed in a few days. Considerable excavating and rock work is being done, and there was a total of 65 men at work to-day. The engine and boiler were secured at Vancouver, none of that power being available here.

—There was no evidence forthcoming at the hearing of police court this morning to substantiate the charges against John Henning, an old man arrested for vagrancy, and also suspected of being guilty of an indecent action in the presence of a little girl, and he was ordered discharged by Magistrate Macrae. Hemming has been in the city off and on for some time, but the vagrancy charge could not be proven as he was away to Alberni only a few days ago.

—The vice-regal party left for Vancouver on the Charmer this morning. The boat left an hour earlier than usual for their convenience. They planned to leave Vancouver early this morning in a private car attached to the freight and go far as Harrison, where they were to spend a few hours and go on on the Atlantic express later in the day. It is about definitely settled that the will return to Victoria later on. Lady Thompson and daughters are to visit their excellencies at the ranch near Vernon.

—A new school building has been erected on the corner of Yates street and Fernwood road, one of the most prominent sites in town, and Mrs. Edwin McNaughton and Mrs. Spofford are now teaching children from 3 to 8 years of age. Mrs. McNaughton, who has studied Froebel's kindergarten system of instruction, will conduct kindergarten classes, Mrs. Spofford undertaking the primary department. The rooms are commodious and well ventilated and the furniture and equipment of the school are all arranged with due regard to the requirements of teachers and scholars.

—Miss Adelaide Van Volkenburg, daughter of Mr. B. Van Volkenburgh, of Victoria, and Mr. H. W. Moulton, of Seattle, were united in marriage at the latter city yesterday. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's brother, 510 Jefferson street, and Rev. Henry Dexter, pastor of St. Clement's church, officiated. A number of relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony and afterwards extended their warmest congratulations. Mr. and Mrs. Moulton came to Victoria on the Sehome yesterday, and will spend a few days here visiting the bride's parents. Mrs. Moulton is a well known young Victoria lady, and has a legion of friends. Mr. Moulton is a member of the firm of Newman & Moulton, printers, of Seattle, and is well known in the business community of that city. He formerly resided in Ontario.

—A meeting of the presbytery was held last evening, there being present: Revs. Alex. Young and D. A. Macrae, of Nanaimo; Revs. W. Leslie Clay, A. B. Winchester, Dr. Campbell and D. MacRae, of Victoria, and several elders. Rev. W. Leslie Clay was elected moderator for the next six months. Revs. D. Robertson, superintendent of missions, Dr. Campbell and D. MacRae were appointed a committee to visit the Central Presbyterian church on Friday the 13th instant for the purpose of preparing a report to be presented to the presbytery on Monday the 16th instant. The request of Mr. A. Peatt for a grant of $100 for a church building at Colwood was cordially recommended. A report on home missions was presented by Rev. D. A. Macrae, who reviewed the work for the past six months and the arrangements for the ensuing six months. The ordination of Mr. Foster will take place at East Fernwood on the 16th instant.

—Do not wear impermeable and tight-fitting hats that constrict the blood vessels of the scalp. Use Hall's Hair Renewer occasionally, and you will not be bald.

—Errors in diet corrected by the use of Adams' Tutti Frutti. See that Tutti Frutti is on each five cent package.

—Wire cloth for screen doors, meat safes, etc. Shore's hardware.

PREVOST PROBABLY CAUGHT.

His Boat Seized by Customs Officers and Prevost Placed on San Juan Island.

Pretty Strong Case Against Falding, New Westminster's Registrar.

Superintendent Hussey last evening received the first accurate account of how Registrar Prevost left Victoria. The information was given by Hamm J. Lipsett, of Dungeness, well known in Victoria. Mr. Lipsett, who knew Prevost well, states that the missing registrar arrived at Dungeness on the Monday morning following his disappearance from Victoria. He had crossed the gulf in a small sail boat, and was accompanied by a man who is well known along the water front. Prevost registered at an hotel, seemed to be well supplied with money, and made no effort to conceal his identity. The man who accompanied left shortly after their arrival for Port Townsend, on the steamer Wildwood, and must have made his way back to Victoria, as last Thursday night he returned to Dungeness from Victoria on the steamer Evangel. On the following morning, Friday, he and Prevost again embarked in the small boat and left Dungeness in the dense fog. It is presumed that it was Prevost's intention to board a foreign bound vessel in the straits. It is not known whether he was successful, as the Victorian who was with him, has not yet returned home.

Constable McKenna is on the other side of the straits looking for Prevost, and he is being assisted by the local police.

Constable W. Bullock-Webster left this morning for Spokane to bring back the other defaulting registrar, W. H. Falding. The case against him is even worse, from all accounts, than the one against Prevost. Just before leaving New Westminster Falding drew $1100, consisting of trust funds, from the bank. He is charged with embezzling this money, and on this charge he will be tried.

It is quite probable that Prevost, the missing registrar of the supreme court, is by this time in the custody of Provincial Police Officer McKenna, as the following telegram was received by Manager William Christie, of the C. P. R. telegraph office from Manager Cook of the Pacific Postal office at Port Townsend at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon:

Port Townsend, Wash., Sept. 4.

W. Christie, Victoria: Revenue launch overhauled Prevost in a boat near San Juan Island Sunday or Monday, seized his boat and turned him loose on the island. McKenna has probably captured him to-day.

The reason for the seizure of the boat is very likely that Prevost failed to give a very satisfactory account of himself and was taken for a smuggler by the crew of the revenue launch.

WILL SERVE SIX MONTHS.

John Claussen Cannot Pay His Fine Nor Give a Peace Bond.

Unless some of the friends of John Claussen come to his assistance he will have to serve a long term for assaulting Mrs. Lange. He was fined $10 and costs, or a month in jail, and ordered to give bonds to keep the peace for a year, or in default go to jail for six months. He could not pay the $10 fine, nor could he obtain two sureties for the peace bonds. He will, therefore, have to serve seven months, or six if the sureties run concurrently, which will at be pronounced excessively severe punishment, when the nature of the offense is considered.

Claussen sent for several of his friends yesterday and to-day, but was unable to get anyone to go on the bond. He was taken to the Provincial jail this afternoon by Constable Abel.

THE TRIP CANCELLED.

No Steamship Could be Obtained to Take the Warrimoo's Place.

The Canadian-Australian line will miss the trip from Sydney to Victoria on September 16, and from Victoria to Sydney on October 16. It was impossible to secure a steamship in Australia suitable for the run, and it was decided to cancel the trip entirely. Notification to that effect was received here last evening by Geo. L. Courtney, agent of the C. P. R., from the Vancouver office of the company. The Warrimoo will be docked on her arrival at Sydney and will only have to miss one trip, as there will be ample time to repair her in the interval.

The steamship Miowera is expected to arrive here about the first of the coming week. She has a big general cargo and a number of passengers in both cabin and steerage.

A CALAMITY AVERTED.

Forest Fires Fought Back from the Water Main Trestle.

The trestle upon which the water main crosses the hollow on this side of Beaver lake came very near being destroyed by fire last night, and if it had the city would have been without water, for its destruction would have been followed by the falling of the pipe. The fire was carelessly started by someone yesterday, and it spread very quickly in the dry brush and timber. In the evening it reached the pipe line and Caretaker Lehman and Engineer Jorgenson with a couple of men made a fight to keep it from catching. They had a long hard struggle at the trestle, but managed to save it. There is considerable fire in the woods in that vicinity.

The break in the main which would have followed the collapse of the trestle would have been bad for Victoria as there would be a water famine at once and the city would have been at the mercy of any fire started.

SEWER PIPE CONTRACT.

Letter From the Manager of the B. C. Pottery and Terra Cotta Company.

Water Committee Report Fixing the Duties of the Clerk of Works Rejected.

The mayor and full board were present at last evening's meeting of the city council.

John J. Magee transmitted an order of the Privy Council of Canada refusing to reimburse the city for the care of the lepers on Darcy Island and also refusing to undertake the control of the leper station.

The city council asked the Dominion government to reimburse the city to the amount of $2037.39, the net cost of the station, and to assume control of the station as was done in New Brunswick.

The letter was received and filed.

Ald. Wilson suggested that the lepers be sent to Ottawa.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Lemens asked that the St. Louis college property be exempt from taxation, the school in every way being a free school. Referred to the city assessor.

Hon. Secretary Renouf extended an invitation to the mayor and council to attend the opening of the exhibition. Accepted.

The following letter was received regarding the contract for sewer pipes, from A. F. Barham, manager of the B. C. Pottery Works:

Victoria, B.C., Aug. 30, 1895.

To the Mayor and Corporation of the City of Victoria:

Gentlemen,—I should like to draw the attention of your honorable board to some facts in connection with the letting of a contract for the supply of 9 and 10-inch sewer pipe and junctions by Mr. Northcott, as purchasing agent for the city, nominally to Mr. Keller, but in reality to the Denny Clay Co., of Seattle, and which I consider have been somewhat overlooked in the transaction.

In the first place, I would refer to my reply to Mr. Northcott's letter of the 25th ult., calling for tenders for the supply of 18-inch pipe and fittings, in which I drew his attention to the fact that all the pipe originally contracted for between this company and the city had been delivered. The reason for breaking this contract was, I understand, some change in plans on the part of the city authorities, and there was an undoubted understanding to the effect that this company should have the privilege of supplying the pipe required at future times. Notwithstanding this, I, at the same time having regard to the general drop in prices since the time the contract was made, offered to meet him to any reasonable extent on the subject of price. I may hereadd that the prices I eventually quoted, and which were lower than the U. S. company by some $250, were precisely the same figures that I would have quoted in any case, and I can prove this statement.

Mr. Northcott having intimated that he would only deal with this matter by sealed tender, I accordingly, on the 30th ult., filed my tender with him, at the same time entering my protest at the action taken by him on behalf of the city.

The result of this tender was as already stated, viz., that my price was about $250 below that of the Denny Clay Co., as represented by Mr. Keller. My prices were based upon what I considered the fair market value of the pipe in question. I at the same time gratuitously gave the city the benefit of a reduction in the price of 10-inch pipe and fittings, amounting $100.62, on an order which had been placed with me on the 16th of July at the old schedule prices. My object in so doing was to convince the city authorities of my intention of dealing with them in a straightforward manner, and giving them the full advantage of any reduction I was prepared to make. The amount of this rebate is made up as follows:

43 feet 10x6 Y's, at 35c.	15 48
8 feet 10x6 T's, at 36c.	2 88
	$100 62

Trusting that I have made my meaning clear so far, I will now proceed to the second call for tenders, dated 22nd inst. To this I replied on the 23rd inst., quoting the following prices: Nine-inch sewer pipe at 32 1-2 cents per foot; 9x6 Y's at $1.30 each; 10-inch sewer pipe at 45 cents per foot; 10x6 Y's at 1.50 each, these prices being computed on precisely the same scale as my previous tender. The aggregate amount of this tender on the pipe required is:

B. C. Pottery	$1,178 45
Denny Clay Co.	1,099 21
Difference	79 44

I did not hear of the result of this tender until the morning of the 27th inst. By that time I had the whole of the pipe required to make up the order in process of manufacture. I understood that the pipe was required at once, and I had no option but to push on with the making so that there would be as little delay as possible in delivery. I may mention here that I had in stock nearly all the nine-inch pipe required and about two hundred feet of ten-inch, with sufficient junctions to carry on the work until such time as I could deliver the remainder. The result of this transaction is to leave me with this pipe on hand, where it is likely to remain for some time. If, on the other hand, Mr. Keller had not got the contract, he, as an importer, would have been minus his commission, and that would have been the end of it.

There has been a great deal said about the protective duty and freight being sufficient margin for us. So it is in ordinary instances. But in the case of a cut like the present, made with the deliberate intention of driving us out of the market, the duty and freight is little or no help to us.

The Denny Clay Co.'s price list for nine-inch pipe is the same as ours, 50c. per foot, off which their usual trade discount would be, say 50 per cent.:

Net price	25c. per foot
Duty, 35 per cent.	8 3-4c. "

without any allowance being made for freight, wharfage, cartage or breakage, our price for this same pipe is 32 1-2c. delivered.

I have, I think, given facts and figures sufficient to prove that I have throughout endeavored to deal with the corporation in a fair and business-like manner, and that the prices I have quoted are in no way above the market value. But without a certain degree of reciprocity it is impossible that these works can continue to operate. It is for you, gentlemen, to consider whether it is or is not for the advantage of Victoria that they shall do so.

It is the only concern of a like nature in the province, and employs white men only, who are residents of Victoria and the neighborhood, and the wages they earn are spent here—at any rate for the most part. The amount of wages paid by the company to the workingmen of Victoria from the time of its commencement in September, 1890, to the present date, as taken from the books of the company, amounts to $81,095.05. Should the works close it means in round figures that from $15,000 to $20,000 will annually find its way out of the city. This is estimated on the past 12 months' trading, and I very much question whether, in that event, either the city or the present contractor will get their pipe as cheap as they do now. We do not ask for any undue favor whatever at the expense of the ratepayers, but we do ask that so long as we will supply a good article at as cheap a rate as it can be obtained elsewhere we shall be given all the support and encouragement possible.

I must apologize for having trespassed at such length upon your valuable time, but this is a matter of serious importance to this industry, and, I venture to think, to the community at large. I am sure, however, that as such it will receive your careful consideration.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,
Yours respectfully,
A. FOSTER BARHAM,
Manager B. C. Pottery Works.
44 Government street.

Ald. Humphrey thought an explanation was required from the sewerage committee. It seemed evident that the outside company was trying to run out the local company by cutting prices.

Ald. Macmillan explained that when the sewerage committee were given authority by vote of the council to put in these sewers, they found that the engineer, without any instructions from the council or the committee, had given an order to the Terra Cotta Company for $900 worth of pipe for this work. It had been the rule of the city engineer to order what pipe he required from the local company and the city paid for it according to a list. As a sample of how this worked, the city had 23,000 feet of 8-inch pipe in the pipe shed which had been there for four years and could not be used until near the completion of the work. The committee, with the object of putting a stop to this waste of public money instructed the purchasing agent Mr. Northcott, to call for tenders for pipe. When tenders were called for Mr. J. W. Keller offered to deliver the pipe for $2519. The Terra Cotta Co. claimed that they were not being dealt fairly with when tenders had been called for, as it was understood that the company would supply the city with pipe in the future. He would like to know who had the power to enter into an understanding with the company? That would bind the city to buy pipe from the Terra Cotta Company at boom prices for all time. Alderman Macmillan quoted the company's old price list and their new one. In their old list ten-inch pipes were quoted at 54 cents, in the new list at 45 cents; 18-inch pipes were reduced from $1.35 to $1.28; junctions from $2.16 to $1.78, and $5.40 to $4.80. On the Belleville street order something like $400 was saved, and another $100 was saved on the other order, and the committee obtained a reduction on the price of pipe already delivered and used at the old list price. He did not think the local company had been unfairly dealt with. They had been given every advantage. The money saved to the city would be expended on improvements and the workmen would get every cent of it. On the other hand he saw that the old employes of the Terra Cotta company were suing for wages. After the contract was awarded to Mr. Keller the company made another offer of 29 cents for 10-inch pipe. The schedule price for this was 54 cents. If the company can sell 10-inch pipe now for 29 cents how much did they intend to make out of the city when they asked 54 cents for it? Mr. Keller was a ratepayer of the city and doing business here for years and could fairly claim equal consideration with others here who made or dealt in pipe. In admitting him to competition for supplying the pipe the committee had shown the Terra Cotta Company that they could not have a monopoly of supplying pipe at their own price. This was the first order Mr. Keller ever got from the city. The Terra Cotta Company had supplied many large and profitable orders and even on the present work they had supplied more than three-fourths of the pipe used. On imported pipe the profits of manufacturers, the cost of freight, the profits of the dealer here and 35 per cent. duty had to be paid, and if the Terra Cotta Company could not compete with opposition thus handicapped he would ask what kind of profits did they want. The committee had simply done their duty with the city's money, what else would the council expect them to do?

Ald. Cameron did not think anybody had been unfairly dealt with. All men in the trade had been asked to tender for the pipe and the contract had been awarded to the lowest tenderer. Neither the committee nor the purchasing agent knew anything about the Denny Clay Company referred to by the writer. The company had never offered to reduce their prices until there was competition. The city had continued to pay the highest prices for pipes while other materials had come down in price. The tenders had been opened before the council and the engineer. The committee did not have the power to pay a local company a higher price than agents for other companies.

Ald. Partridge said Mr. Northcott was not to blame in the least. He was not at the meeting when the contract for the pipes was awarded. He did not know how he would have voted but did not think the local company employing white men could compete against the Seattle company employing Chinese.

Ald. Hall thought all tenders should be opened at a meeting of the council. Two members of a committee had awarded a contract. This he thought was unusual. The local company should have received some consideration.

Ald. Humphreys said the company could not be blamed for the fact that a lot of pipes were stored in the pipe yard. It was the fault of former councils. The company had competed against several concerns for the supply of pipes and their price list was established on their tender given at that time.

Ald. Wilson was sorry the contract had been awarded by the committee. If it had come before the council he would have voted for the local company. It would be a long while before the Americans sent to Victoria for anything they could get on the other side. The company were manufacturing a good article and their prices were so low that a firm importing British pipes had decided to stop doing so. The committee had done one good thing. They had brought down the local company's prices.

Ald. McLellan considered that all tenders should be opened before the council. When the street committee wanted a horse they had to ask the council for it, but when the sewerage committee got a sum of money the council did not hear anything about it. The corporation should be the first to help local industries. The saving, $79, was small to the city. While the cost of the pipes would mean a good deal to the workingmen engaged by the Pottery Company.

Ald. Bragg thought that in future all tenders should come before the council. A committee should not award contracts without the consent of the council. The council was blamed for something it had nothing to do with.

Ald. Macmillan said other committees had claimed the same right as that exercised by the sewerage committee. There would be a full report on the matter.

The letter was received and filed.

F. W. Glover wrote again regarding the injuries he received by being struck by a street car.

Ald. Humphrey said the city barrister was of opinion that the city was not responsible.

Referred to the finance committee.

C. McK. Smith, for A. DeJonghe, wrote that the offer of the city to take over certain streets without reimbursing the owners for money expended on them, could not be accepted. Received and filed.

Inspector Northcott reported that the old building at the corner of Douglas and View streets was a dangerous nuisance. Laid on the table.

Market Superintendent Johnson reported that fees for August amounted to $127. Received and filed.

Mayor Teague drew the attention of the council to the application of Alex. McLean for re-admission to the Old Men's Home. He said something would have to be done with the man.

Ald. Macmillan said he was not a fit person for the home, but arrangements might be made with the Salvation Army to take charge of him.

This course was decided upon.

L. H. Solly and nine others asked for an investigation into the action of the health authorities regarding the nuisance caused by the Canada Paint Company at their factory on Store street.

Ald. Partridge said the Company were making alterations which would abate the nuisance.

Referred to the sanitary officer.

O. W. Jenkinson and thirty-three residents of Craigflower Road asked for a light on that road. Referred to the electric light committee.

John McDonald and others asked for a water main on Hilton avenue. Referred to the water committee.

The finance committee recommended the appropriation of $4,018 out of the general revenue, $8,032 out of the sewerage loan, and $354 out of the waterworks loan. Adopted.

The printing committee recommended that tenders be called for printing by-laws and voters' lists. Adopted.

The street committee reported that it was not certain that the lane between Menzies and Louis streets was a public thoroughfare.

The water committee reported as follows:

Victoria, 3rd September, 1895.

Gentlemen: We, your water committee, beg to report as follows:

That we consider the water works engineer, Mr. Jorgensen, should be held responsible for any changes made thus far in the construction of the cofferdam or other works at the lake, and so as to avoid any possibility of extras being charged up to the city as the result of the changes made by the engineer, that before the next payment is made to either the engineer or the contractors an assurance be received in writing that there are no extras charged, and that a thorough understanding be arrived at as to what allowance the contractors are to make for the reduction allowed in substituting one for two rows of piles in the construction of the cofferdam.

That Mr. Brown, the clerk of the works be instructed to keep a diary written up

WM. WILSON.

Ald. Bragg said he had not signed the report, as the mater referring to the changes in the works and the duties of the clerk of the works had been dealt with by the council. He thought the engineer should define the duties of the clerk of the works. Mr. Jorgenson had already said that there would be no extras or deductions.

Ald. Williams thought that the present was the proper time to deal with the question of extras.

Ald. Partridge considered the rules laid down for the clerk of the works very childish. If the council did not have confidence in Mr. Brown they should make another appointment.

The Mayor said it must not be forgotten that the clerk of the works was under the engineer. If the engineer is to be held responsible he should control the clerk of the works.

Ald. Humphrey could not agree with the report. The clerk of the works should receive his instructions from the engineer.

Ald. Cameron pointed out that the engineer had asked for assistance several weeks ago. The assistant had been appointed, but had not yet assumed his duties.

The report was laid on the table.

The water commissioner recommended that $2,500 be appropriated for clearing out Beaver Lake. The water was much lower now and a great deal of work could be done. During the summer $1,239 had been expended for the purpose. He also recommended that the 12 and 16 inch mains crossing the trestles near the lake be covered. The recommendations were adopted.

Ald. Bragg moved, seconded by Ald. Macmillan, that the city be subdivided into four wards, each ward to be represented by two aldermen.

Ald. Macmillan explained that although he seconded the resolution he was not in favor of dividing the city into four wards. The matter should however, be laid over for some time.

The motion was laid on the table until the first week in November.

Ald. Williams brought up the question of establishing a home for old women. There was one case at least which would have to be attended to. The woman would either have to be cared for or sent to her friends in the east.

The matter was left in the hands of the Mayor.

The council adjourned at 10.15.

The quartz prospectors who are operating in the Big Bend, report finding high grade galena float in several places, but they are making no effort to locate the leads. It is gold they are after.

Several mineral locations in the Big Bend were recorded this week, they are situated principally on Graham creek, a tributary of French creek: North Star, J. S. Patterson; Alpha, R. McDermid; Alice, C. Douglas; Bonanza King, F. Young; Gloucester, Jas. Lett; Vancouver, J. W. Haskins; Crown Point, C. O. Winkenden; Last Chance, J. H. Hoar. Frank Sanders made a location on Holiday creek, a tributary of Goldstream. They are free milling gold propositions.

Mr. J. H. Susmann, who spent considerable time in West Kootenay in behalf of the Kansas City Smelting Co., writes from Montreal, where he is now permanently located, that the Smelting Co. have decided to await further development of the mines before taking any more steps in the matter of building smelting works in this district. He thinks that the Kansas City Co. will continue to take an interest in this section, and will be glad to take an active part when in their opinion the conditions will justify it.

Preparations are being made by the C. P. R. for the erection of a new bridge across the Columbia river at this point, and it is expected that the work will be completed during the coming winter. Contrary to expectations, the new structure will be a wooden one, similar to the bridge at present in use, which is the longest wooden bridge on road, measuring over three-quarters of a mile.

Another big ledge of mineral has been discovered by Messrs. Bullard & McMillan, about five miles north of Lardeau City, that promises to develop into valuable mining property. The character of this ore is silver-lead, and looks as if it might carry gold. No returns from the samples sent away for assay have yet been received. The ledge is a strong and well defined reef carrying large quantities of ore. The ledge runs in a northwesterly direction.

The report of the mining engineer, F. D. Taylor, upon the Maple Leaf and Oak Leaf mineral claims, at Illecillewaet, has been entirely satisfactory to all parties interested. The result is that work is to be commenced immediately. The claims are to be thoroughly opened up by drifts and tunnels, and a concentrator built on the C. P. R. track. An aerial tramway will be put in to connect the concentrator with the mine. Besides these there are five or six good properties in the camp, which require the necessary capital to make them profitable and put them on a paying basis as ore producers.

The greatly increased carrying capacity of the C. & K. Navigation Company's new steamer Nakusp has resulting in an increase in the volume of ore and bullion movement. On Saturday the Nakusp brought up five carloads of bullion for Aurora and two cars of ore—one Cumberland and one Alamo—for Omaha. The Lytton had two cars of bullion and one of ore. On Thursday the Nakusp had four cars of Hall mine ore for Omaha, and four carloads of bullion. To-day the Lytton will come up with her scow, each carrying three carloads of ore.

Work on the Arrow Lake branch has commenced at last, and the advance guard went down on Thursday to start clearing the right-of-way. Dan McGillivray has the contract for this work, and his former superintendent, J. C. Whyte, is in charge again. They had only twelve men to start with, but say that relays will be received each day until the full complement is obtained. Construction is to be carried on with all possible haste so that the extension may be ready for winter's trade, and the contracts for the grading and other work will be placed next week.

Messrs. Frisby, Reighly, Tom and Bruce Horne returned on Saturday from the locations recently made on the Jordan, and started on the return Tuesday. The latest calculations of the distance to the new finds places them about fifteen miles. This was Tom Horne's first trip there and he is enthusiastic about the new discoveries, and states that it is the best defined ledge he has yet seen. Three more claims were staked and recorded on this trip.

Typhoid fever, in its most virulent form, is reported to be prevalent in Rossland. One hotel has no less than eight cases under its roof, while isolated cases up to the number of ten are now fully identified and located. The cause of the outbreak has been traced to the unsanitary condition of a stream running through the town, which, during the hurry of the boom has been used for every purpose by the inhabitants. Strenuous efforts are being made by the local authorities to stay the progress of the disease and to put the town in a reasonably sanitary condition. No deaths have been reported as yet. A gentleman who came up on the Nakusp Thursday says numbers of people are leaving the town and there is no scarcity of shacks for rental.

Messrs. Malone & Tregillus are shipping a carload of ore from their claim, the Blend, on Rove creek to the U. S.

Work is suspended at Forty-Nine creek owing to lack of water, but it is hoped that a good run will be obtained before the frost stops the work.

It appears to be definitely settled that the Montana Ore Purchasing Company of which Mr. Heinze is president, will build a smelter at Trail Landing. This fact has been announced by Mr. Humphreys as positive. The tramway which that gentleman is interested in will also be built at once, but our informant does not say whether it wil be worked by electricity or gravity. The smelter will have a capacity of 100 tons a day and is expected to be ready to treat ore by the 1st of November.

The Homestake mine at Rossland has gone into the hands of a corporation to be known as the Homestake Gold Mining Company. The company organized yesterday is stocked for $500,000, divided into 500,000 shares, each of the par value of $1. The incorporators are C. B. Hopkins, J. M. Burke, J. C. Davenport, Harry L. Wilson, Cyrus Happy, Ben Norman, F. J. Macgougan, James J. Halls, and Francis R. Drake.

On Sunday afternoon last a large pile of cordwood belonging to some Swedes, on the wagon road near the switchback, took fire and the flames speedily leapt to the adjoining bush. By Monday the fire had assumed serious proportions and threatened to sweep up the hill and the tramway works, the new ore bins, and all the buildings at the Silver King and other Toad Mountain mines. The entire force of men at the King and all those on the tramway and lower ore bins, numbering nearly 200, were at once dispatched to the conflagration, and some 40 or 50 others were recruited in town to aid in stopping the fire. Mr. M. Davys, manager of the Silver King, most ably seconded by his foreman, succeeded in confining the fire below the lower road, but at the present time of writing (Friday), huge volumes of smoke are still ascending from the valley, and though the fire is checked in its attempts to climb Toad Mountain it is progressing up the valley and is reported to be climbing the next hill, on which the Golden King is situated. The origin of the fire is a mystery, though rumors freely ascribe it to incendiarism, the result of differences among the dealers in cordwood. The matter will likely be sifted in the courts. Meanwhile another fire is raging at the head of Forty-Nine creeek, which causes some apprehension on Toad Mountain, and another is coming up the Salmon river.

NANAIMO.
Free Press.

An attempt is being made at Lulu Island in the delta of the Fraser river, to sink an artesian well to procure water. The bore is now down 745 feet, but without striking water. This completes the depth called for by Mr. McLeod's contract, but the Richmond municipality have arranged with him to continue the boring to a greater depth. The bore is sunk near the town hall, and strange to say, for that great depth, neither rock nor gravel has yet been struck, the strata being a mixture of clay and sand, with occasional layers of quicksands.

Yesterday Mr. Stephen Foster died at his residence, Newcastle townsite, from cancer. The deceased was well known in Victoria and this city, having been in the province 11 years. He was a sign writer and painter of marked ability, and his many friends will be grieved at his demise. Stephen Foster was a native of Harden, Yorkshire, aged 57 years, and leaves a wife and grown-up sons and daughters to mourn his loss. The funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon, at 3 o'clock from his late residence, Fourth street, under the auspices of Nanaimo Lodge, No. 4, A.O.U.W., of which lodge the deceased was an honored member.

The Union Brewery Company have decided to erect a brewery at Union. H. Reifel, the manager, will leave for Union in the morning, and commence active operations at once. The company will take up the plant of the Nanaimo brewery, which they obtained some time ago.

THE RING.

CONCEITED CORBETT.

Washington, Sept. 4.—"My meeting with Fitzsimmons will take place at Dallas," said Champion Corbett last night. "The latest advices I have from there are that no changes have been made in the original plans, and that none are contemplated. There is no truth in the report that building material for the amphitheatre has been discontinued. All the legal sides of the case have been gone over carefully by the most eminent counsel, and there is nothing that can stop the fight from taking place at the appointed time except my serious injury or death, or the failure of Fitzsimmons to come to time. In a few days I will stop all public appearances and set to work to get myself in the finest possible condition for the battle. I am as hard as nails right now, but will train some more, so as to make short work of my man."

WILL THEY MEET?

Dallas, Tex., Sept. 4.—In the twenty-first round of the Clark-Kavanaugh glove contest to-night the contest was stopped by the police. Both principals and James B. Bates, the referee, were arrested and are in jail. This is a case to test the validity of the state law regarding prizefighting. Application for a writ of habeas corpus will be made to-morrow in the court of criminal appeals, the tribunal of last resort. Should the court declare that there is no law against glove contests, an application will be made to the supreme court for a mandamus compelling the state comptroller to issue a license for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight.

This afternoon the Florida Athletic Club tendered Tax Collector Jacoby $500 for a license to pull off the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight. Collector Jacoby explained that he would willingly make out the license, but he had no blank; in fact, no blanks had ever been printed for that kind of license. He then turned to the law, which in substance says that if any collector shall give a manuscript or any other species of receipt for taxes except the regular blank furnished by the comptroller, such collector shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and on conviction fined from $100 to $500 and may be dismissed from office.

An action will at once be filed, compelling Jacoby to issue this license according to law. This will be carried through the courts as a test case, affecting the Corbett-Fitzsimmons contest in October.

A new code went into effect in Texas to-day, completely changing the civil and criminal laws of the state. It is in this law that the anti-prizefight law is contained, which the attorneys of the Florida Athletic Club claim is conflicting and unconstitutional.

CRICKET.

NO MEAN FOES.

New York, Sept. 3.—When play was resumed between the Oxford and Cambridge and All-New York cricket teams at the Staten Island cricket grounds at 11:20 this morning, there were more than two hundred people on the grounds, as it was generally thought from the form shown by both teams yesterday, that the Americans would be practically snowed under. Towards the afternoon the attendance increased to about 800, and the ladies' club house and the pavilion were well patronized by the fair sex. The wether was excellent, although a trifle warm, and at times the sun was responsible for some of the errors made by the fielders.

The crease was in fair condition. Bruce, the not-out man when the stumps were drawn last night, was partnered by R. A. Studd, in defence of the wickets this morning. The new comer was the first to be let out. Lowman and Cobb were the bowlers. Studd hit Lowman to leg for a couple, which sent the double century mark up on the telegraph board. The same batsman snicked Cobb to the ropes for four, and then Bruce drove Lohman to long on for four, and in the next over sent the ball in the opposite direction for one less. Studd banged the next ball to the boundary for four and a minute later repeated the trick twice over. Kelly replaced Lohman, with the score at 225. After Studd had gathered thirty-one runs he was dismissed by a clever left hand catch in the slips by Cobb, off Kelly. Milligan then joined Bruce, but only seven more runs were added when the Surrey man placed a drive in Macnutt's hands, after making the top score of 121. Bruce thus finished one of the best innings ever played on this ground. Milligan and Mortimer were short lived. Mortimer sent into Rokeby's hands at mid on, after making three and Robinson joined Lowe. The latter retired after making a single and a boundary hit, being caught by Macnutt. Robinson made the third best score for his side, piling up forty-seven in a lucky manner.

There were several changes in the bowling, Poole replacing Macnutt and Kelly Lohman. Robinson's hits included three sixes, four fours, a double and several singles. Hartley was the last man to bat on the team, and Kelly dismissed him, bowling him cleanly, with a total of 323 runs.

Byers and Patterson began the All-New York's second innings. Wilson and Hartley were the bowlers for the Collegians and Robinson stood behind the wickets. Runs came very slowly, as the Americans were extremely cautious. It was necessary for the home team to make 211 to save a single inning defeat. Singles were the rule until twelve was put up. Then Milligan replaced Hartley. Patterson was hit on the knee.

At 1:30 play was adjourned for luncheon, but the men were out on the field again fifty minutes later. At 2:20 Byers was caught by Lowe, with the score at twenty-two, and Tyers joined Patterson. With the score at twenty-five Patterson was caught by Hill in the slips and Byers was dismissed, being caught by Robinson without having made a run. Cobb and Lohman made things interesting for the Englishmen. Lohman sent two for four each to the boundary, and Cobb followed suit. Lohman drove Hartley out of the grounds for six, but a few minutes later he was caught at long-off by Hill, with a well-earned twenty-four. Rokeby then came to the bat and snicked Hartley for four, and then sent two to square leg for four each. With the score at 85 Lowe replaced Milligan and Coff drew him to the off for three. At 3:24 100 was marked up. Arkwright replaced Hartley at this stage and Rokeby sent him to the boundary immediately. Cobb drove Lowe to the ropes for four and Rokeby cut him for the same figure. Rokeby after driving for another quartette was missed by Milligan at mid-off. Milligan went in vice Lowe, with the score at 126. Rokeby drove the second ball to the boundary and cut another to the same place. Cobb sent Arkwright to square leg for another four, and Rokeby cut Milligan for the same amount. Robinson missed Rokeby behind the wicket and he went on making fours until dismissed, being clean bowled by Arkwright with a score of 66, which was made up of one six, twelve fours and singles. The total score was now 183, and Mart joined Cobb. The new batsman knocked out a double and a four and Cobb assisted him to send the 200 mark up. This brought about a change of bowlers, and Hill caught Mart in the slips. Kelly came next, but Cobb was run out, with a score of 224, he having contributed 73 runs. The others were retired before 5:30, with a total score of 267. Play will be resumed at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning, when the Englishmen require to make fifty-seven runs to win.

Livingston, Staten Island, Sept. 4.—In to-day's match between the Englishmen and All New York, the former won by eight wickets. They had only 57 runs to make to win.

Toronto, Sept. 4.—The Americans made 207 runs to-day in their second innings in the match between Canada and the United States. Canada thus wins the match by 140 runs.

LOST IN THE BUSH.

The Sagacity of a Dog Saves the Lives of Three Children.

Edmonton Herald: Three little children belonging to Godfrey Tacholwze and Stephen Gitzell, settlers at Stony Plain, experienced a strange adventure last week. The children, the oldest of whom was only six and a half years old, and the others five and two and a half years, left their homes on Sunday evening, the 18th instant, to pick berries, accompanied by a dog, and got lost in the bush. All they had to eat was a piece of bread and some berries. Afraid that the dog would leave them, the eldest child, a little girl, gave him the bread to eat and worked away herself at picking berries for the other little ones. On Monday night the dog left them and returned home. After being fed the dog's action attracted the attention of his owners by whining and crying, every now and again making a start from the house, returning after going a short distance in a certain direction. Seeing that he meant them to follow, and trusting to the sagacity of the dumb animal the anxious parents of the lost children called on some of their neighbors for assistance and started out on the search. Guided by the dog they eventually found the children about five miles distant on Tuesday morning, they having had nothing to eat but berries during all that time. Had it not been for the intelligence of their faithful dog it is probable the children would never have been found alive.

JACK THE RIPPER'S FATE.

An Insane Medical Student, He Is Confined in an Asylum.

New York, Sept. 3.—Dr. Forbes Winslow, of London, a well-known specialist on suicide and insanity, says that Jack the Ripper, who by his crimes, terrorized London a few years ago, is incarcerated in a county lunatic asylum in England. Mr. Winslow says this is known to the doctors, but they hushed up the facts. Dr. Winslow says he is a medical student suffering from suicidal mania. The doctor has come to New York to attend the medical congress which will be held on September 4, 5, and 6. He will be chairman of the department of insanity and mental medicine, and has prepared a paper on suicide considered as a mental epidemic. The story told by Dr. Winslow follows:

Jack the Ripper was a medical student of good family. He was a young man of slight build, with light hair and blue eyes. He studied very hard, and his mind, being naturally weak, gave way. He became a religious enthusiast and attended early service every morning at St. Paul's. His religious fervor resulted in homicidal mania towards the women of the street and impelled him to murder them. He lodged with a man whom I knew, and suspicion was first directed toward him by reason of the fact that he returned to his lodgings at unseasonable hours, and that he had innumerable coats and hats stained with blood.

"I have in my possession now a pair of Canadian moccasins stained with blood that the 'ripper' wore while on his murderous expeditions. I notified the Scotland Yard authorities, but at the time they refused to co-operate with me. Subsequently the young man was placed in confinement, and remanded to an asylum where he is to-day. Since his incarceration there has been no repetition of the horrible murders that he perpetrated. These facts are all known to the English authorities, and it is conceded that the man now in the asylum is Jack the Ripper. It was deemed desirable, however, to hush the matter up. The details were too horrible to be made the subject of a public trial, and there was no doubt of the man's hopeless insanity."

TO MOVE THE CROPS.

A Large Demand for Paper Money in Small Denominations.

Washington City, Sept. 4.—The furnishing of small notes and silver dollars to meet the demand for money to move the crops is likely to absorb the energies of the treasury department during the next few weeks more than the demand for gold. The demand is not so active this year as it has sometimes been, and it is not expected to be, because the national banks are better equipped than usual with small notes, their surplus reserves are larger, and the treasury itself has been making its recent shipments of money in notes for $5 and $10. There is a large supply of both these denominations in the currency reserve vaults of the treasury. The supply of notes for $1 and $2 is not so large, but can be increased if necessary. There is little discrimination in the demands upon the treasury as to the character of the paper currency sent out, so long as it is in new bills for small denominations.

The usual policy of the department is to unload silver certificates as far as possible, to follow these by Sherman treasury notes, and to retain the old legal tender notes to the last. The diffusion of small Sherman notes in distant parts of the country prevents their presentation at the sub-treasuries for redemption in gold, and the holding of the legal tender cuts off in a measure the excess of currency redeemable in gold at New York.
